

Until We Meet Again

Flogging Molly

There's an angel on my doorstep
But I don't know who she's for
Said she'd promise me forever
So I slam behind the door
When will I be back I said
But she turned and held the key
To the soul you have lost
Forever walks with me
Ohhhhhh

Until
Until we meet again
I'll drown in my own hell
To take back all I've said
Until
We meet
Again

Mother of all mothers
Did you mother me too long?
And father like all fathers
Wasn't long before you were done
This jail has me imprisoned
But in this cell I don't belong
And to the son I once lost
Together we are born
Ohhhhhh

Until
Until we meet again
I'll drown in my own hell
To take back all I've said
Until
We meet
Again

Come back to me tomorrow
And I'll show you all the days
Underestimate the mornings
Then the nights are here to stay
The fools are all exploding
But their work is never done
Oh what the hell my dear friend
You're a fool like everyone
Ohhhhhh

Until
Until we meet again
I'll drown in my own hell
To take back all I've said
Until
We meet
Until we meet again

Until we meet again
