

Love and Halogen

Flunk

This goes on for days on end
Let's spend darkness innocent
Let's just kiss and make amends
Spend it on love and halogen

Charlie's playing the mandolin
While other people count their sins
When darkness comes to swallow them
Go spend it on love and halogen

This will last for days on end
Past forever and back again
Charlie says he's lost his friends
He's back on love and halogen

Charlie's up to something good
Setting fire to the neighbourhood
Let the darkness burn, and then
Spend it on love and halogen

Emotional conspiracy
Erase it all from memory
So when we start all over again
We'll spend it on love and halogen
