

the oxtam ad makes you feel bad you put a few coppers into the slot pretending that it's all that you've got hungry conscience charity, hilarity

starving millions
prevention, cure
a few pence shed and both are fed

the money we donate to charity is too small to be of real consequence but large enough to ease our conscience

disease, poverty and famine need not to exist because we let them, they continue to persist there is enough for all of our need but not for all of our greed
