

Day By Day

Fly to the Sky

How was your day today? Was it okay?
It was too late yesterday so I couldn't call you
I kept picking up the phone and then putting it down again
That's how I spent the night a little silly, isn't it?
I was curious about your day
If you also hug your pillow when you sleep like I do
Or Sometimes if when you wake up only the TV is on in loneliness
When it's really nothing
I was curious maybe it's because I'm starting to like you
But to say these words oh baby is it because its hard to say
Or just because I have no courage to say it
So I keep my distance from you

I love you. No, I'm not worthy yet.
Wait for the day that I can show you my love
Very slowly you'll understand a lot..
The day I can show it to you

I reached out my hand and went towards you
I thought it was a dream but I couldn't stop myself
I just can't stop this trembling that I feel inside me
I'm confessing everything to you

Day by day~ more important than I
I still long for your love, day by day
(2x)

Day by day nah boh dah duh soh joong hahn
I still long for your love... day by day...
