

Poison Party (Famous)

For All Those Sleeping

Flashing lights, attention and lipstick
They're not a trend, this is our new religion
Where the truth always seems to give in
To the lust, to be liked, and post filtered pictures
Where's the passion? Where's the substance
Where is the honesty that I once grew up with
When it pays to to fake your shortcomings, then plastic is the new gold and what's real is worth nothing

Need it, crave it. You'd love to taste it
Let me hear you say it (famous famous)
You really want it. You better take it.
Fake it til we make it and we all get famous

Welcome to the world gone crazy
Stop by and drop a name
Drink up, join the poison party
Who cares if God will save us as long we're all famous
(Hey, hey) as long as we're famous (2x)

Every month I dread to bear witness, to which awful trend becomes the hot new addiction
Make it stop, I beg. Will anyone listen
But if you can't join 'em, hell, then you might as well beat them
Fuck your idols and fuck their fame
They don't mean a thing (2x)

Need it, crave it. You'd love to taste it
Let me hear you say it (famous famous)
You really want it. You better take it.
Fake it til we make it and we all get famous

Welcome to the world gone crazy
Stop by and drop a name
Drink up, join the poison party
Who cares if God will save us as long we're all famous
(Hey, hey) as long as we're famous (2x)

Ladies and gentlemen, we have arrived at the point of no return
So sit back, relax, and enjoy the feel as we watch this world burn
We're all gonna burn

Now raise your glasses with me
We really got it this time
Lets celebrate (famous) so raise your glasses with me
Here's to living the good life
Lets celebrate (famous)

Welcome to the world gone crazy
Stop by and drop a name
Drink up, join the poison party
Who cares what God will say just..
Welcome to the world gone crazy
Stop by and drop a name
Drink up, join the poison party
Who cares what God will say just as long we're all famous
(Hey, hey) as long as we're famous (2x)
