

The Pedestrian

Foxboro Hot Tubs

I don't need a reason to be a misfit
Whatever the reason, how far Iâ€™ll go
When it's my time then I will let you know

It don't take a genius to be an idiot
It don't take a Jesus to save my soul
Well it's my time and it's my time to go

Pedestrian is what I am
I'm an understated Samaritan
Where I go, I go alone
As long as I am taking my time

I don't know the answer to be specific
I listen to reason if the reason is true
I take my time, well, now it's time to go

Pedestrian is what I am
An understated samaritan
Where I go, I go alone
As long as I am taking my time

I don't know the answer to be specific
I listen to reason if the reason is true
I take my time, well, now it's time to go
I take my time, well, now it's time to go
I take my time, well, now it's time to go
