

Why Did I Get Married?

Foxygen

Why did I get married?
I don't know. Does it matter?
Does it matter?
When will I get married?
I don't know. Does it matter?
Does it matter?
Does it matter?

You say your grandma used to whip you all the time
I'll be the best that I can be
Cause I have my family to feed, ain't that right?

Why did I get married?
I don't know. Does it matter?
Does it matter?

Oh, it's so wonderful, umm it's so mechanical, and you're beautiful too
Like an animal in the zoo
Tomorrow can tell, daddy don't know this
Took time to think it's new through the tunnel
And all the kids lives disputing, wondering if I was broken
Here's your difference, relocate and take it

Said I'm tired of being picturing all the time
I think of her equipped again this time
