

Red Thunder

Frances

Every head has a secret place
And every heart has seen better days
Don't you know?
Oh oh oh oh
Take your train to a different part
We find a light leading to the start of a new paint

Oh oh oh oh
No it won't be easy when you go
And I probably cry here on my own
But didn't you notice that voice?
I've been holding you up
And carrying through red thunder
Red thunder

I see a tear falling from your eye
Your face is telling me it's no surprise
That you're down
Oh oh oh oh
Take your seat and throw it far away
Start running and you wake up next to me one day

Oh oh oh oh
No it won't be easy when you
And I probably cry here on my own
But didn't you notice that voice?
I've been holding you up
And carrying through red thunder
Red thunder

Red thunder
Red thunder
Thunder
Thunder
Red thunder
Red thunder

Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Thunder
Red thunder
