

And I Had You There

Frankie J

realized that something was missing, it just wasn't my day and alone my intuition, saying she's going away i'm getting chills just thinking about it, maybe everything's o kay

and then the cold came in, and her best friend said, the train was leaving at night, she said you better hurry up, w ant to catch you girl
hoping to get there on time, i couldn't waste another minute, i ran as fast as i could, feeling scared and agitated,
i turned around and there you stood.

had the build the nerve to find a way to let you know,
i love you so,
and i had you there
i couldn't let the moment go had to put my arms around you and let you know won't take for long..

it felt so lonely on the right side of the bed felt so cold under the covers, no-one laying on my left minutes turning into hours, and the hours turning into days going crazy here without you, as the longer i wait

and then the cold came in, and her best friend said,
the train was leaving at night, she said you better hurry up, w
hoping to get there on time, i couldn't waste another minute,
i ran as fast as i could, feeling scared and agitated,
i turned around and there you stood.

had the build the nerve to find a way to let you know,
i love you so,
and i had you there
i couldn't let the moment go
won't take for long..

baby please.. you don't have to go
