

Oh I Wept

Free

Oh, I wept for days
Filled my eyes with silly tears
Don't care if my eyes get sore
I'll take my seat on the train and then
Let the sun come and melt my pain, oh yeah
Come tomorrow I'll be far away
In the sunshine of another day
Worried mind makes it so hard to bear
Got to live and have not to care
But I don't care no more
Don't care if my eyes get sore
I'll take my seat on the train and then
Let the sun come melt my pain again
Come tomorrow I'll be far away
In the sunshine of another day
Another, oh, another day

Let the sun come and melt my pain, oh yeah
Come tomorrow I'll be far away
In the sunshine of another day
Worried mind makes it so hard to bear
Got to live and have not to care
But I don't care no more
Don't care if my eyes get sore
I'll take my seat on the train and then
Let the sun come melt my pain again
Come tomorrow I'll be far away
In the sunshine of another day
Another, oh, another day

Now I've left all behind
I did not care to be so kind
But I dream this long night
Could be all right

Let the sun come and melt my pain oh yeah
Come tomorrow I'll be far away
