

Understand with reason
Cause their ain't no way of pleasin'
Cause the thing that's in effect

Turns out to be respect

Gotta get up

Gotta get down
Gotta put the fear
In the ground

Also weak in their minds
Also fake, also blind

Lies and lust and hate

In the end it's too late
All the tears that were wept

All the friendships that were swept
Was it worth it was it swell

Only time and death will tell

And we reach the final sum
After all is said and done

Take Your heart in Your hand
And alone You will stand
