Front Line Assembly

A darkened eclipse

A form of a cloud now bursts in to the sky
Explodes in the horizon

A (reign, rape) of murder will
Now slowly pervade

The smile of the earth

Now slowly drifts away

Here is the day to remember
Chorus:

Now is the day with this (memoir, member)

Here is the day for sorrow

Now, no tomorrow

This mercy of madness

Imminent defiance

A virus of violence

Devised with only one goal

Control and destruction pool all this power of evil

This global warming
Must bake with all our souls

Chorus

A stillness now falls

On this land of illusions

The strips of the damage burn
Into your hands

Wounds of infliction

Hail the sounds of sorrow

The heart and the pulse has been (strict so fires still fold?)

Chorus x2

We can never go back

To the way it was

A decade of hope

It's just a lost cause

Destroyed with one hand, blow by blow
Decade of hope, will never go
