The Lord Hates a Coward

Future of the Left

tales are told of terrible men of anger poise and pride she's got a lot af pickled onions hanging from her thighs then violence solved everything violence she solved everything violence solved everything violence solved everything violence she solved everything get some get some no pressure son get some get some no pressure son if you want to press, press us if you want to press, press us if you want to go, if you want to go if you want to press, press us she faked her death vor maximum love then loved until she fell she's got a lot of opinions, a present from a friend then violence solved everything violence she solved everything violence solved everything violence solved everything violence she solved everything get some get some no pressure son get some get some no pressure son if you want to press, press us if you want to press, press us if you want to go, if you want to go if you want to go, if you want to go