

This Time

Futuristic

I won't let you linger in my mind
Look for peace and then I find, I could see the signs
Everywhere I go, everywhere I go, woah
I won't make you read between the lines
You could see it in my eyes this time
It's gotta be enough, it's gotta be enough, woah

We just can't keep going back and forth
Started to be a fucking joke on the low, no
I just can't go
You gotta leave me alone
You just can't keep poppin' up like ads
I'm the best you ever had, that's a fact
Girl bunch you gotta know
They say how this supposed to go

Yo
Out of my sight, you out of my life
Blocked your number, I did that twice
Can't fall back to the same old patterns
That's another plate that I can't resign
Can't rewrite, can't rewind
But I gotta make that change this time
Always gon' feel like you still mine
I'm always gon' feel like you still mine
But I gotta dip, girl you're a trip
Used to take trips, had you all in the mix
Often we on, here then we gone
Stop by your crib just to get that fixed
Gave you that woah, but that ain't healthy
Always gave in, I just couldn't help it
Gotta move on, no I can't be selfish
Can't believe all the shit that you dealt with but

I won't let you linger in my mind
Look for peace and then I find, I could see the signs
Everywhere I go, everywhere I go, woah
I won't make you read between the lines
You could see it in my eyes this time
It's gotta be enough, it's gotta be enough, woah
I won't let you linger in my mind
Look for peace and then I find, I could see the signs
Everywhere I go, everywhere I go, woah
I won't make you read between the lines
You could see it in my eyes this time
It's gotta be enough, it's gotta be enough, woah
