

Invested

Gabe Bondoc

It doesn't take much, I know
Everybody said move slow
I've been tryin' to hold it all back
I just can't win
Wish that I had hid my cards
Now I'm in the whole nine yards
Wish that I can hit restart
And start all over again

How I wish that I knew then what I know now
How I wish that I could take things back somehow
Sure, I'd like to be yours
But now the ball's in your court
And I think that I am trapped in your game

Don't take much to see that I'm all in
Invested
Don't take much to see that I can't win
Invested
I don't wanna see how this thing ends
No no no no
I'm so tired of almost love
How I wish I wasn't so invested
I wish I wasn't so invested in you

I know it's too early to
Be so damn worried about you
Trip more than I'll admit to
Sittin' in my room
Waitin' on your text, your call
Wish I didn't care at all
Now I don't just trip or fall
I'm fallin' apart

How I wish that I knew then what I know now
How I wish that I could take things back somehow
Sure, I'd like to be yours
But now the ball's in your court
And I think that I am trapped in your game

Don't take much to see that I'm all in
Invested
Don't take much to see that I can't win
Invested
I don't wanna see how this thing ends
No
I'm so tired of almost love
How I wish I wasn't so

The days that I feel I'm all better
Are the nights you're in my dreams
And I just can't erase
How to forget that pretty face
I'm just so, I'm just so, I'm just so
Invested in you

Don't take much to see that I'm all in

Invested
Don't take much to see that I can't win
Invested
I don't wanna see how this thing ends
I don't wanna see how this thing ends
I'm so tired of almost love
How I wish I wasn't so invested in you

Don't take much to see that I'm all in
Invested
Don't take much to see that I can't win
Invested
I don't wanna see how this thing ends
Oh no
I'm so tired of almost love
How I wish I wasn't so invested in you

Don't take much to see that I'm all in
Invested
Don't take much to see that I can't win
Invested
I don't wanna see how this thing ends
I don't wanna see how this thing ends
I'm so tired of almost love
Wish I wasn't so invested in you

Don't take much to see that I'm all in
Invested
Don't take much to see that I can't win
Invested
I don't wanna see how this thing ends
