

My Plan

Gabe Bondoc

Well I wrote you a song, on a napkin today
It didn't take me too long already knew what to say
But it would've clearly been wrong cause it begged you to stay
So I threw it away, threw it away
Because

Even though I like to keep you mine
My plan is not to change your mind
I lock the feelings deep inside
For another time, For another time
(Baby)

Don't get me twisted
Cause I admire everything that you're doing
You have my best wishes
And, and I know that you're gonna get through it
So girl if there's something that you're needing
To those feelings be true
You can only love me, As much as you love you
But girl I know you know that's the truth, yeah

Even though I'd like to keep you mine
My plan is not to change your mind
I'll lock the feelings deep inside
For another time, For another time
(Baby)

I'm suppressing my fight
Cause I know that you're right
Girl you gotta do what you gotta do
So you could be a better you
I put my questions on hold
And even though I feel cold
I'll be bold for you
And trust that I know My Plan

Yeah, Don't you change your mind for me, Baby yeah
Even though I like to keep you mine
My plan is not to change your mind
Don't Change your mind
