

Sweet Nothing

Gabrielle Aplin

The rain starts falling
When you're calling me
Why can't you see?
I'm diving under water
Just to breathe

And I'm feeling lonely
I'm feeling blue
Won't you please give me something?
I don't believe in your sweet nothing

I feel your arms around me
You say you feel the love
But oh I feel alone
You think you understand me but
I don't even understand me
And oh I feel alone

London living
Nothing comes for free
Why can't you see?
Time won't heal it
Just stand still for me

And I'm feeling lonely
I'm feeling blue
Won't you please give me something?
I don't believe in your sweet nothing

I feel your arms around me
You say you feel the love
But oh I feel alone
You think you understand me but
I don't even understand me
And oh I feel alone

I feel your arms around me
You say you feel the love
But oh I feel alone
You think you understand me but
I don't even understand
