This is nothing new to me
It takes more than what you've got
To frighten me
I'm not scared of you
There's nothing you can do
Or take from me

Untouchable
You think you're untouchable
You know
No one's untouchable

You're bound to lose the game There's no one else to blame You play so safe
And you're not risking enough You are doomed to be undone I swear I'll be the one
To bring you down

It's all your fault Cause you got caught

Untouchable
You think you're untouchable
You know
No one's untouchable

It must be nice
To be so sure
And never feel insecure
It must feel good to believe
You're always right
And you're never wrong

You've got something to say You say it to my face And be a man about it You got a problem with me Don't go behind my back Just like a baby

No one pisnicky akordy able

Untouchable (pride comes before)
You think you're untouchable (you take a fall)
You know (you best beware)
No one's untouchable (a woman scorned)
Untouchable (pride comes before)
You think you're untouchable (you take a fall)
You know (you best beware)
No one's untouchable (a woman scorned)
No one's untouchable
You think you're untouchable
You know, no one's untouchable
No one's untouchable
No one's untouchable
No one's untouchable
