Reintegration
Look in the void and the void looks back at you
No separation
It's not apart, it's a forgotten part of you
No separation
Reintegration

My one desire to open the gates of

Reintegration
Look in the void and the void looks back at you
No separation
It's not apart, it's a forgotten part of you
No separation
Reintegration

We always try to hold on
To the pieces that are long gone
But we don't really want them anymore
Why can't we just
Why can't we just let go

Reintegration...

Reintegration
Look in the void and the void looks back at you
No separation
It's not apart, it's a forgotten part of you
No reservation
No hesitation
No separation
