

I lost myself in a bottle of gin and I'm wasted all the time (all of the time) One more shot for all my fucking failures might just end my life (just end my life)
And I think if I'm not mistaken of maybe breaking down.
I might be acting a fool by breaking the rules, but I truly believe that I'll never be cool I feel neglected, young and reckless now

I'm so crazy, but I just may be the type of personality that compliments your style
And I'm just waiting for the day you save me
From myself 'cause I can't help the way I feel for you
For you

I found myself in a world of hurt and I'm looking for a friend (for a friend)
The devil called me up for a proposition, forgave me for my sins (for all my sins)
I don't know, but I've been told that rock'n'roll is dead I've been losing myself but I never have dealt with the problems I've had, not needing the help I feel neglected - I'm young and reckless now

I'm so crazy, but I just may be
the type of personality that compliments your style
And I'm just waiting for the day you save me
From myself 'cause I can't help the way I feel for you
For you

I feel like I'll be okay and I hope I can just maintain it I will not let myself become my problem
And I know that if I keep trying I might one day really find it I will not stop until I truly solve this Solve this

I'm so crazy, but I just may be
the type of personality that compliments your style
And I'm just waiting for the day you save me
From myself 'cause I can't help the way I feel for you
For you
(2x)

For you
