Yeah

At the edge of us I'm holding on I've lost your trust But I'm still trying

I've changed in many ways
I can't explain
I've lost my touch
And I'm not lying

Screaming on the inside Yeah, on the inside I've come undone

And I'm waiting for a time like Yeah, for a time like this To prove you wrong To prove you wrong

You've got a grip on me I cannot take it by mistake And you're the coward

My tongues become a gun You've tortured me I'm out of luck And you're the trigger

Screaming on the inside Yeah, on the inside I've come undone

And I'm waiting for a time like Yeah, for a time like this To prove you wrong To prove you wrong

What goes on behind those eyes of yours I'll never know but I've been told When this all comes crashing down on us I'll be here to sort us out, to sort us out, out

And I'm screaming on the inside Yeah, on the inside I've come undone

And I'm waiting for a time like Yeah, for a time like this To prove you wrong To prove you wrong

Screaming on the inside Yeah, on the inside I've come undone And I'm waiting for a time like Yeah, for a time like this To prove you wrong To prove you wrong To prove you wrong To prove you wrong
