

Cold Love

Ghinzu

Your love is cold, distant and shy
You think no one deserves your time
Precious, Pristine, you look so clean
But too much make-up will stain your dress

Cause all is in your eyes, all is in your eyes
And I know my tongue will make your mind

Cause you're ready for love

You climb the stairs, almost unveiled
Inviting me inside your room
You lose your gloss between the sheets
A bitch is born she's now my queen
Cause all is in your eyes, all is in your eyes
And I know my tongue will make your mind

Cause you're ready for love

And I think that you could
Yes I feel that you would
I think it's time, come again
Yes you're ready for love

Yeah my love, turn around
Put your knees on the ground
It's so good come again
Yes you're ready for love

And I know you want it more
And I know you want it all
'Cause you're ready for love
