

Cemetery Baby

Girl in a Coma

You stand in the graveyard,
You beat yourself up about
Where the stars now
As you just fall down,
There's no one around
Because if you make a sound,
Where are the butterflies now?

So you cry in the dark
Who's there to stir it around
No one cares
You cry in the dark now
You cry to bury it all now

And oh, and oh
You just shove it around
You just bringing me down
You just shove it around
You just bringing me down

Please do tell,
If you know me so well,
What's on my mind
The taste of regret
The touch of the same thing
The sound of relaxing pain
Why do you shiver to ground

So you cry in the dark
Who's there to stir it around
No one cares
You cry in the dark now
You cry to bury it all now

And oh, and oh
You just shove it
Shake down you
And break with me
It's a man hole
You were never safe to me
I'll just let her go

And it's a ride
When you fall down
You couldn't get back up
And it's a ride
When you fall down
You couldn't get back up

So, let's bring it back again
Wave goodbye to all your friends

Shake down oh
And break with me

You were never safe to me

Shake down oh
It's a man hole
Shake down oh
It's a man hole
