

Face the wall of faded pictures
I've never been in love like this

Place a ring upon a finger
I've never felt a rush like this

Don't you ever start to wonder what's it like to be alone?
To sit and stare and ponder
Living life it's not your own

Oh let's watch tomorrow go

Hold your head up though you're shaking
I've never felt a rush like this, not quite like this

You were never one to fake it
I've never felt a lust like this, not quite like this

Don't you ever start to wonder what's it like to be alone?
To sit and stare and ponder
Living life it's not your own

Oh let's watch tomorrow go
