

I'll Paint You A Song

Glen Campbell

I look inside your eyes
And find a little girl
Whose dreams have turned to sand
Somewhere along her way

But if you'll close your eyes
And step inside my world
I'll take you by the hand
We'll find a brand new day

I'll sing you a morning
With laughing bluebirds
I'll sing you a fairy tale
Full of ribbons and crepe paper words

I'll sing you a rainbow
You can keep for your own
I'll sing you a morning
I'll paint you a song
So won't you come along

I'll sing you a morning
I'll paint you a song
So won't you come along
