

Ocean In His Eyes

Glen Campbell

I've heard you say you love me
But I'm not sure you know just what you mean
Cause if you did, you wouldn't leave me
Standing somewhere in between your scene
Someday you'll understand what pain is
When it's too late and your man has gone away
I don't think you're human but
I'll miss you anyway
And he cries
And he cries

There's an ocean in his eyes
See how low he flies
When his baby's gone
Why don't you even call me
Or would that put too much of a strain on you?
And when you do you always accuse me
Of something you're afraid you might do
Someday you'll understand how wrong you are
While my conscience shines on bright and clear as day
You'd never believe me but
I'll tell you anyway
And he cries
And he cries
There's an ocean in his eyes
See how low he flies when his baby's gone
Won't you look and see
How low he flies
When his baby's gone
Gone
Baby's gone
Wha ha huh
