

Cover Me

Glenn Hughes

Somewhere between the lines unbroken
There lies the sacred part of me
Behind the door that once was opened
Is where I fell from grace you see
Inside I feel the pressure
My faith I cannot measure
Seems like the wound has deepened
I wake but I'm not breathing and I say
Cover me while I'm sleeping, won't you cover me?
Cover me if I'm bleeding, won't you cover me?
Cover me, be my shadow, won't you cover me?
Cover me, I will follow, won't you?
So won't you take this captured spirit?
Now won't you hear my final plea?
You got to cut the wire, release your sympathy
Unspoken words that heal
This dream just can't be real and I say
Cover me while I'm sleeping, won't you cover me?
Cover me if I'm bleeding, won't you cover me?
Cover me, be my shadow, won't you cover me?
Cover me, I will follow
Somewhere between the lines unbroken
There lies the sacred part of me
Inside I feel the pressure
My faith I cannot measure
Seems like the wound has deepened
I wake but I'm not breathing and I say
Cover me while I'm sleeping, won't you cover me?
Cover me if I'm bleeding, won't you cover me?
Cover me, be my shadow, won't you cover me?
Cover me, I will follow
