

Monkey Man

Glenn Hughes

I don't, really want to suffer Earthquake, in the engine room
You scream, you don't get enough a I shake, when you pack the boom

You don't relay You don't accept You will be swept away I won't delay I only want to say

I'll tell you something for nothin' I'm not your monkey man Now
I'm gonna send you a letter Cuz I'm not your monkey man

It's so real it's so real it's so real

Glad rags, you have got me thinking You creep behind my back My bags have been packed, I'm swearin' I reap, just what you lack

I won't delay I only want to say

I'll tell you something for nothin' I'm not your monkey man Now
I'm gonna write you a letter Cuz I'm not your monkey man

It's for real It's for real it's for real

delay I only want to say

I'll tell you something for nothin' I'm not your monkey man Now
I'm gonna send you a letter Cuz I'm not your monkey man

I'll tell you something for nothin' I'm not your monkey man Now
I'm gonna write you a letter Cuz I'm not your monkey man

It's for real It's for real it's for real
