You Got Soul

Glenn Hughes

Down in Saint Jude's hall, you star in a play You're ready to f ree fall, the children do say Euphoric recall will take you awa Y

Underneath your skin

I know that you travel, on your astral plane The deepest respec t, can your hear my refrain So nice to meet you, when I was in Spain

Underneath my skin Here it comes again

Say yeah, yeah yeah

You got soul You got soul

You ain't done nothin' wrong The flesh is weak, but the spirit is strong

You got soul You got soul

I knew it all along Your eyes do speak, when I sing my song

The Dalai Lama do whisper and say Deep in your karma the demon you slay You be the one and you blow me away

Underneath my skin Here it comes again

Say yeah, yeah yeah

You got soul You got soul

You ain't done nothin' wrong The flesh is weak, but the spirit is strong

You got soul You got soul

I knew it all along Your eyes do speak, when I sing my song

Underneath my skin Here it comes again

Say yeah, yeah yeah

You got soul You got soul

You ain't done nothin' wrong The flesh is weak, but the spirit is strong

You got soul You got soul

I knew it all along Your eyes do speak, when I sing my song
