

Hail to the King

Gloryful

Captured in the fire
I reached the end of the light
Conquering the gates of hell
A sacred star in sight
I defied the purgatory
And heaven means nothing to me
Bloodbound to my oath
Revenge!
My hate free to unfold

Raise your fist
Unite for a last final strike
Destiny calls
Now is our time
Can you feel the power
And force of a new dawn
The kingdom of light, it will rise

Hail to the king

I defeated the demons
I crossed the bridge back to life
An endless journey through misery
Where mercy can't survive
The ancient star burns in my hand
A power about to burst
Bow to the chosen one
All hail!
A flame that always burns
