

Hit the switch, uncontrollable contact
Bones break with desperate sounds
What is not believable is not inconceivable
A new religion underground
Say my name in cinematic subtext
Watching you pulling out the nails
Actions unthinkable, zero fifth dimensional
Under construction, the function fails

Not this time, I swear to you
Don't spoil our contact shame
Unintentional, my actions unthinkable
On the screen, nothing's changed
We're hunting spirits in stereo
Electric recorded fame
The original version's on video
Rewind, you're not the same

Hypnotizing neurotic screams
Begging for control with your armageddon dreams
No sense makes sense right now
Learn the way it ends, I'll show you how
Satanic envy, borderline brainwashed
An audition for the memories you've lost
Televised Christians with murderous intentions
Reminds me of a name I won't mention
