Stranger, when you look at me Eyes strong as steel Light as day.

Born a mystery You're the in between Boy or girl.

Wilder,
Than I've known before
Fire rushes through everything

With that smile it seems You'll be killing me Tenderly

Every word is soft as fur I'm drifting deep Deeper in

Stranger will you remember, Stranger make me Remember you Remember you

Taken back
The crowd are tired
It's dead and gone
Do or die.

Stranger I dream of you and Stranger I will Never know Never know Never know
