

Up to You

Good Riddance

Sometimes we fall
We can't see at all
We look for truth
Seek absolutes
But you think you're going to save me now? (You got it wrong)
You're gonna show me how (For too long)
Take a piece of me (There's not a way)
Because I don't want to live your way
It's your life it's up to you (3x)
There's always someone telling you what to do
I've got to try
My life is mine
Somewhere inside
That beacon shines
Still bright enough to save me now (You got it wrong)
Show me how (For too long)
Take a piece of me (There's not a way)
Because I won't stand to live your way
Actions wield the fortunes inside
Find a source of light which you can follow
Somebody else assigns a value of their own
Who can alter the passion inside
Create a sonic trail for my departure
Nobody else decides the course we find alone
