

Streamline Woman

Gov't Mule

Saw you in the starlight
Gave my heart a stir
Naked in the moonlight
Made me shimmer for sure

Ooh, streamline woman

Your head's in the city
But your soul flies through the clouds
Looking so doggone pretty
Made me laugh out loud

Ooh, streamline woman
Ooh, streamline woman
Let me be good to you

Streamline woman
Let me be good to you

Eyes wide open
Suitcase in your hand
Passport in your pocket
Do you need a place to land

Ooh, streamline woman
Ooh, streamline woman
Let me be good to you
