

Thorns of Life

Gov't Mule

Let me take you on a hillside
Clouds streaming overhead
I can't take these lies
Hanging over my head
Better off leaving it behind
Running away instead

Thorns of life seem to be
Penetrating my soul
Something is fading in me
Something's taking it's toll
Hard to stay a step ahead
When you're losing control

Takes everything I can do
Just to make it through these times
I've got to get back to you
Gotta make it this time
Dying inside till I feel you
Burning on my skin
Under the moonlight I'll reveal you
Again and again

Thorns of life seem to be
Penetrating my soul
Something is fading in me
Something's taking it's toll
Hard to stay a step ahead
When you're losing control

Let me, let me, let me feel you
Let me feel you
Oh! Oh!
One more day
One more day
Give me one more day

Dying inside 'til I feel you
Burning on my skin
Under the moonlight I'll reveal you
Again and again

Dying inside 'til I feel you
Burning on my skin
Under the moonlight I'll reveal you
Again and again and again

Let me take you on a hillside
