Drag

Grant Lee Buffalo

Shoot that cannonball into my wings Shoot that cannonball into my wings Into my wings Gunpowder stings You better tell me sweet things

Unload your pretty head into my ear
Unload your pretty head into my ear
Isn't it quaint
Isn't it queer
You gotta drag me back here
Here

Sing me Morrison would ya kizza-my-eyes Sing me Morrison would ya kizza-my-eyes Singing it low Singing it high Would ya kizza-my-eyes My eyes

Turn me on my ear When you drag me right back here

Here

You got to drag me right back here You got to drag me right back here You got to drag me right back You got to drag me right back here Into love
