

Sorrowfilled Moon

Grave

Buried beneath the rain from this clouded sky
I can't breathe but still emotions flow through me
Like I never left your side
I can hear you cry from my final place of rest
Sorrowfilled moon shines through my six feet roof
I long for you to bring me back
Silently I'm cursing all beliefs
Wondering if you dream of me
Like I never left your side
I can hear you cry from my final place of rest
If you love me you should join me
Share this void I'm in
If you love me you'll make sure we'll stay together
Buried beneath the rain from this clouded sky
I can't breathe but still emotions flow through me
Like I never left your side
I can hear you cry from my final place of rest
Sorrowfilled moon shines through my six feet roof
I long for you to bring me back
