One Of My Lies

Green Day

When I was younger I thought the world circled around me But in time I realized I was wrong My immortal thoughts turned into just dreams of a dead future It was a tragic case of my reality

Do you think you're indestructible And no one can touch you Well I think you're disposable And it's time you knew the truth...

'Cause it's just one of my lies! Well, it's just one of my lies And all I wanted to was get real high Well, it's just one of my lies

Why does my life have to be so small? Yet death is forever And does forever have a life to call its own? Don't give me an answer 'cause you Only know as much as I know Unless you're been there once Well I hardly think so

Do you think you're indestructible And no one can touch you Well I think you're disposable And it's time you knew the truth...

'Cause it's just one of my lies! Well, it's just one of my lies And all I wanted to was get real high Well, it's just one of my lies

I used to pray all night Before I lay myself down My mother said it was right Her mother said it too... Why?
