

I Don't Wanna Lose Your Love Tonight

Greg Lake

I saw your face in the mirror,
the eyes of a killer,
sending shivers down my backbone.
And I knew you'd surrender,
you were just a pretender,
falling right into the dropzone.

How was I to know that you were hit and run?
You had the magic to turn the key,
there's no denyin' what you do to me.

I don't wanna lose your love tonight.
To say that I'll abuse your love ain't right.
I never could abuse your love.
Baby, don't refuse your love.
I don't wanna lose your love tonight.

You made me feel like a hero,
my resistance was zero,
my temperature began to soar.
Another shot of tequila
took me right off the meter,
from heaven to the hard call.

How was I to know that you were hot and and cold?
I'm just a victim of circumstance.
And like a fool I had to take a chance.

I don't wanna lose your love tonight.
To say that I'll abuse your love ain't right.
I never could abuse your love.
Baby, don't refuse your love.
I don't wanna lose your love tonight.

How was I to know that you were hit and run?
You had the magic to turn the key,
there's no denyin' what you do to me.

I don't wanna lose your love tonight.
To say that I'll abuse your love ain't right.
I never could abuse your love.
Baby, don't refuse your love.
I don't wanna lose your love tonight.

I don't wanna lose your love.
Baby, don't refuse your love.
I don't wanna lose your love tonight.
