

New Day

Greg Laswell

From here on, (I'll leave out)
From here on, (I'm about)
So go ahead now
Swing away at me
You throw your arm out
(Try ending me)

And I've found a new day
I've found a new way out of hell, I've
I've one day left

From here on, no more lines are drawn
From here on, you're not outside anymore
So go ahead now
Swing away at me
You throw your arm out
(Try ending me)

And I've found a new day
I've found a new way out of hell, I've

There's no use
Stopping what's already on its way
There's no use in
Stopping what's already on its way
