The Gypsy in Me

Gretchen Wilson

Mmm yeah You're disappearing, that's all there is to it Yeah, that's the long and the short of it all Drifting on that ol' wind like leaves in the fall It comes down to a whole lot of nothing No matter how hard I try You were meant to go down the winding road And leave me behind

So, if I can't win for losing If there's nothing left, and you wanna go free Just give me tonight and I'll be alright Cause all that I need is a little time And I'll find the gypsy in me

Oh yeah

So I'll ride down that long stretch of lonely Wrapped in my blanket of stars This will end to nothing, but it will end in my heart

So if I can't win for losing If there's nothing left, and you wanna go free Just give me tonight and I'll be alright Cause all that I need is a little time And I'll find the gypsy in me

Oh yeah

(Woah woah woah woah The gypsy in me) So I'll miss you tonight Ohh I love you, babe I wish you well
