

Changed

Gucci Mane

I swear that I changed
I don't even rock the same chains
Me and them not in the same lane
Swear that I've changed
I even ran into my old hoes
So, I told her I changed
And the number just changed
Man, I swear that I changed
I know you prolly wish that I had stayed the same
I know you prolly wish that I had stayed the same

The Winter turned to Spring
And the leaves start changing
The dress get shorter and her weave start changing
Rocking short sleeves, my timepiece keep dangling and blinking
Ten diamond chains and they turn into tangling
Old Gucci Mane was addicted to drinking
New Gucci Mane, I'm addicted to Franklins
No, we not the same, I'm evolving
I'ma elevate long as the world keeps revolving
And I got problems, but they wish nigga problems
Used to see niggas like me and want to rob them
I know my granny prolly looking down at me now
They used to look down at me, but now look around
My house so big, my pool so muthafuckin deep
So plushed out, I don't really like to leave
My bitch so bad that I don't even go to sleep
Pussy good, it make you wanna buy a ring

I swear that I changed
I don't even rock the same chains
Me and them not in the same lanes
Swear that I've changed
I even ran into my old hoes
So, I told her I changed
And the number just changed
Man, I swear that I changed
I know you prolly wish that I had stayed the same
I know you prolly wish that I had stayed the same

Only thing that ever stayed the same was the name
You prolly wish I go back through the pain
Back when I was in school, contemplating if I ever even Do music again, bitch, I'll do that shit again
Cause' I never got lost when I follow my heart
I know I'm a walking target just dodging the darts
Used to focus on getting rich, now I'm focused on getting smart
'Cause that's only thing that they can't take or tear apart
Beast beast beast, bitch, watch out for my teeth
And I never miss a mill, both cash and feast
And my future set in stone, like Medusa was me
Focused in on this shit and tryna' get off that lease
Cause' if you wanna lease, they got yo' ass on a leash
And now I'm not a pet, I'm a vet, bitch please
The old me used to be a push over, shit
Then, I pushed myself and a nigga took over
One of the greats you bitches tend to look over

But bet I kill this shit every time that the hook over
It's over
Yeah bitch, it's over

I swear that I changed
I don't even rock the same chains
Me and them not in the same lane
Swear that I've changed
I even ran into my old hoes
So, I told her I changed
And the number just changed
Man, I swear that I changed
I know you prolly wish that I had stayed the same
I know you prolly wish that I had stayed the same
