

Did you lay your head upon his chest
Were you so close you could feel his breath?
And were you wearing matching underwear?
I can't take it, can't take it
Did you feel safe cradled in his arms?
Did he tell you, you're a work of art?
Why was the best of me not good enough?
I can't take it, can't take it

I know that you're desperate not to lose this
You've given me the best of your excuses
Thought I was yours and you were mine
I gave you all of me because I, believed you when you said we w ere exclusive
Oh, you said I was the only one
Oh, you said I was the only one
Thought I was yours and you were mine
ere exclusive

You got so used to me being the initiator
But now intimacy ain't even on my radar
Cause my mind is on a loop
I don't know what to do
Cause I'm thinking if you can do it once, you're bound to do it later

I know that you're desperate not to lose this
You've given me the best of your excuses
Thought I was yours and you were mine
ere exclusive
Oh, you said I was the only one
Oh, you said I was the only one
ere exclusive

Oh, you said I was the only one
Oh, you said I was the only one
ere exclusive
