

Heaven Must Have Won an Angel

H.E.A.T

Oh, I've gotta look away
I can't stand myself in the mirror
What should I have done?
I am one with the rain
'Cause the tears won't stop falling
And nothing remains

Hiding, trying, failing
Blinding silence killing
What I've been searching for
And hidden deep within

One day (one day), somehow (somehow)
Will I look in your eyes?
'Cause heaven must have won an angel
One day (one day), somehow (somehow)
I will look in your eyes
Heaven must have won an angel

Oh, I have to understand
That nothing lasts forever
But hope still remains
Behind the walls of guilt
We learn to live, forget, forgive
Is it madness to believe in a dream?

Hiding, trying, failing
Blinding silence killing
What I've been searching for
And hidden deep within

One day (one day), somehow (somehow)
Will I look in your eyes?
'Cause heaven must have won an angel
One day (one day), somehow (somehow)
I will look in your eyes
Heaven must have won an angel

Ohh, oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh

One day (one day), somehow (somehow)
Will I look in your eyes?
'Cause heaven must have won an angel
One day (one day), somehow (somehow)
I will look in your eyes
Heaven must have won an angel

Heaven must have won an angel
One day, somehow
Heaven must have won an angel
