

Double Life

Hadise

Give me a moment to realize it
Lying besides you seems so unreal...
Still can't believe it,
I've tried to fight it I was afraid to feel what I feel
In this cold cold life I need a torch, a guiding light
And you're that guy, you-ou're the one Could you be mine, mine for all times
Would you be mine, mine for all times

I would live a double life
Just to be with you It ain't good and it ain't right But it's what I got to do I would live a double life Secret and taboo I don't want to live a lie
But I got to be with you

I can't feel sorry, cause this feels so good Laying besides you, feels like a dream
Touch and hold me, kiss me all over
Love me like I do, come stay with me
In this cold cold life I need a torch, a guiding light
And you're that guy, you-ou're the one Could you be mine, mine for all times
Would you be mine, mine for all times

I would live a double life
Just to be with you It ain't good and it ain't right But
it's what I got to do I would live a double life Secret
and taboo I don't want to live a lie
But I got to be with you
