

Another Try

HAIM

One thing or two things
Never really mattered that much to me
Now all these apologies are on repeat
Is it destiny or just chemistry?
We're livin' in such extremes
And life won't wait around

So are we gonna give it another try?
Are we gonna give it another try?
'Cause if it it's luck, that's not our side
I'm wishin' the best for the next in line

One thing's true, every memory leads back to you
Got your hat in the back, faded up
Camo tee in the crease of the passenger's seat
And every time I try to leave 'em out
My feelings come back around

So are we gonna give it another try?
Are we gonna give it another try?
'Cause if it it's luck, that's not our side
I'm wishin' the best for the next in line

But are we gonna give it another try?
But are we gonna give it another try?

Wrapped up in your old fleece
I put it on when I can't sleep
When I call and I can't reach you
I'm worried that it makes me look weak to you
Just one more time

So are we gonna give it another try?
Are we gonna give it another try?
'Cause if it it's luck, that's not our side
I'm wishin' the best for the next in line

We could give this another try
If it don't work, then it's alright
I'm wishin' the best, baby
I'm wishin' the best, baby
I'm wishin' the best, baby
I'm wishin' the best, babe
