Eyes wide shut, stuck conscious I can't sleep 'cause I'm with you I can feel your skin go through my soul While yours is somewhere else But you, you never saw me there with you No you don't have a clue Eyes wide shut, action cut I can't sleep 'cause I'm with you I can feel your skin go through my soul While yours is somewhere else But you, you never saw me there with you No you don't have a clue All I have is all I need but all you want is all I'm not And you can't see that all I'll be is someone who just loves yo u when you're there All eyes can see through May you bet things can't go wrong while you're with me But I lie * *

All I have is all I need but all you want is all I'm not And you can't see that all I'll be is someone who just loves yo u when you're there
