

Hit The Ground Runnin'

Haley Reinhart

I can't be held in chains
I ain't your slave
I got this wild heart
And it can't be tamed
If you think that I'm sweet
Sugar in your tea
You better watch your mouth boy
'Cause I don't miss a beat

And you don't know
A thing about me I hit the ground running running running You c an't hold a rebel down
'Cause I'll be breaking out
This spirits gotta be free
I hit the ground running running running
So don't go following me

I know you're falling to deep
You're just like a bomb
'Cause you can't hide your love
No, no, no with camouflage

Things aren't always what they seem, to be
I know what you're thinking,
But she isn't me
It's crazy obsession
Have you lost you mind
Baby don't hold your breath
Mmm, Ohhh

I hit the ground running running running You can't hold a rebel down
'Cause I'll be breaking out
This spirits gotta be free
Don't try and stop me now
Ain't coming back around
This spirits gotta be free
I hit the ground running running running So don't go following me
