

Are the Chances Gone

Johnny Hallyday

We're under a spotlight
I guess the time has gone
We've come to that point babe
To stay or move on
Can we try to reconsider
Or are the chances gone

I see black clouds in the sky tonight
I see a red moon telling me we've
Hit troubled time
Can we try to reconsider
Or are the chances gone
Are the chances gone

Well I hope you're listening to these words I say
Put these doubts aside
And baby come my way
Can we try to reconsider
Or are the chances gone

Tell me can we try to reconsider
Or are the chances gone
Tell me can we try to reconsider
Or are the chances gone
