Alexandra

Hamilton Leithauser

I don't think back, I don't need to But I'm always thinking of you Alexandra (x4)

Yeah my roots are always stronger Dug deep and hard as marble Alexandra (x4)

So I tune out all the voices Telling me it's time to swing again Alexandra (x4)

Yeah there must be some signal Some green light left in your life

Will you white wash your memory When I call you from a crazy sleep? Alexandra (x4)

Well I took a happy hour
And I ran it through your heart
Don't you lose me to those blue skies
I still miss you when we swing apart

Yeah there must be some signal Some lonely old green light Alexandra (x4)

I don't think back, I don't need to But I'm always thinking of you Alexandra (x4)
